

ENGLISH FOR HEALTHCARE: FROM EXPERTISE TO PRACTICE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 2026

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

It's time to submit your proposal for the 2026 English for Healthcare conference!

Conference Themes

Please share your thoughts and research on one of the conference themes:

- Addressing challenges and pursuing best practice in course design, materials creation and engagement in English for healthcare
- Applying AI and technological innovation to teaching English for healthcare
- Innovation and best practice in assessment and test preparation, including OET and MET C1 exams
- Reinventing and transforming your career in English for healthcare

Engage and inspire delegates at this unique conference

- ✓ discuss the problems you have faced and how you overcame them
- ✓ present the research and projects you're working on and their practical implications
- ✓ show how you're bringing new ideas and approaches into the classroom
- ✓ demonstrate how you're re-imagining your role as an educator.

Formats

Presentations should last 30 minutes, including time for questions and discussion.

Workshops should be practical, interactive, how-to sessions lasting 45 minutes.

Posters (A1, A0) should present of your academic research, whether in progress or completed.

How to submit your proposal

1. Register on the English for Healthcare_Registration platform
2. Then login and submit your proposal

Simple!

Deadline: March 31st

ENGLISH FOR HEALTHCARE: FROM EXPERTISE TO PRACTICE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 2026

ABOUT THE ORGANISERS

EALTHY

EALTHY is the global association for the teaching of English for Healthcare, providing professional development, training and services to teachers, researchers, and educational institutions around the world. As part of this, the association organises webinars, materials, teaching resources and networking opportunities for members, including the bi-annual English for Healthcare conference.

JAGIELLONIAN UNIVERSITY
MEDICAL COLLEGE

Jagellonian University Medical College

Jagiellonian University Medical College (JU MC) is part of the Jagiellonian University, the oldest university in Poland and one of the oldest in Europe, founded in 1364. With a strong international tradition dating back over six centuries, the University has long welcomed students from across Europe and beyond.

JU MC Language Centre

The Jagiellonian University Medical College Language Centre, established in 1950, offers courses for students and academic staff of the Faculty of Medicine, the Faculty of Pharmacy and the Faculty of Health Sciences. The courses are specifically designed for future healthcare professionals, with a particular emphasis on learning a specialised language relevant to students' profiles and fields of study. Each year, the Language Centre conducts classes in four modern languages for approximately 3,500 students, including those on PhD programmes.

SPONSORS

Specialist Language Courses

Specialist Language Courses (SLC)

SLC works with educators around the world to provide them and their students with CPD-accredited digital English for Healthcare materials – profession-specific, cross-healthcare, academic and test preparation. Teachers and students work on their branded area of the learning platform where work can be tracked, assignments set and feedback left. Content can be mapped to curricula, from short courses to degree courses, and integrated into existing learning platforms.